The National Dawn Walk for Cancer

'The National Dawn Walk for Cancer is a new nationwide initiative which seeks to honour all of those who battle or who have battled cancer on a day to day basis, by means of a dawn challenge on Mount Leinster. The walk takes place on the 22nd of August at 5.45am and will take participants on a 10km journey over Mount Leinster, from The Nine Stones to the picturesque village of Myshall, Co Carlow. Bishop Denis Nulty as well as Ms Elma Walsh, mother of the late Donal Walsh will be joining us on the walk. . On the morning of the walk we will be gathering at the Presentation De La Salle College, Bagenalstown or Myshall Community Centre (for those coming from the Bunclody side of the mountain) from 4am onwards with all buses due to depart at 5.15am in order to ensure that participants reach the mountain before the break of dawn. The walk will end at about 8am in Myshall where tea, coffee and refreshments will be served. At this point, a special ceremony will be held and the Remembrance Balloons will be released to soar upwards on the breeze in the direction of Mount Leinster. If parishes wish to bring a bus of participants to the event please contact us at 085 7473522.' You can now register online at our website– www.nationaldawnwalkforcancer.com. Places are limited so book early to avoid disappointment. The cost to participate is €10 for adults and €5 for children. You may also register at the number above and 089 2296620"

Bereavements

Deepest sympathy is sent to the family and friends of Nick (Busty) Morris, St Brendan's Estate, Rosslare Harbour and late of Mooretown, Bridgetown who passed away on July 5th at Knockeen Nursing Home. Nick had been in failing health for some time. To his sisters Lucy and Patty, sister-in-law Una, nephews, nieces, relatives and friends we offer our sincere sympathy.

Ronnie Lowthian, Kilrane, passed away on July 2nd. His funeral service was held in St Peter's Church Kilscoran with burial afterwards in St Aidan's Cemetary, Kilrane. Deepest sympathy is extended to his children Trevor, Gillian and Mandy, sons-in-law, daughter-in-law, grandchildren, relatives and friends.

Condolences to James Walsh and family Ard Na Mara and Trish Kavanagh and family St Brendan's Estate on the death of their mother Grace, Corish Park, Wexford, who passed away at Wexford General Hospital on July 7th. She was the beloved wife of John and mother to a large family. Grace was laid the rest in St Ibar's Cemetary, Crosstown after funeral Mass in Clonard Church.

Visit of M.S. Albatross to Rosslare Europort

The MS Albatross, operating under Phoenix Reisen, a German operator, will visit Rosslare on Wednesday 5th August berthing at sea (weather permitting) at 7 am and tendering up to 536 passengers into the port. The ship will depart at 2 pm. The visit will be spectacular from the top of the bank while down in the port visitors will be greeted by various delegates and will be entertained with music, food tasting and enactors from both the Irish National Heritage Park and the 1798 Centre will vividly recall tell their exciting stories. A marquee will be erected and tourism representatives etc. will be on hand to advise and guide. A number of pre-booked tours will depart from the landing area and will bring visitors to Hook Head, Wells House, Wexford, etc. However, there may be other passengers who will want to visit Wexford town or stay local. Perhaps take a walking tour around the village, visit the Maritime Museum, learn more about the RNLI and visit the Lifeboat Station, go on a trip to Our Lady's Island, visit the Tachcumshane Windmill or shop locally and enjoy hospitality in our lovely coffee shops and hotel. To give our visitors a big Rosslare Harbour welcome and ensure that they enjoy their visit may result in other cruise ships scheduling visits to our corner of Ireland. Look out for them and if you have a few words of German now is the time to practice!! Spread the word!!

St Helen's Bay GC

By P.R.O. Ger Byrne

August is upon us and we head into our busiest two weeks of the year. Ladies Open week commences on Tuesday August 4th with the Murphys Supervalu Open Singles, while Sord Data Systems sponsor the men's opener on Sunday August 9th.

We had some great golf and huge crowds during the week. The Open Singles on Saturday, sponsored by Eamon Lawlor, Esso Rosslare Harbour, produced some great scores from both gents and ladies. Well done to Yvonne, Eileen and Bernie who all finished within a single point. The gents had a bumper field with Kevin playing some great golf, returning a score of two over gross. Hard luck to Niall who was burning up the course, two under after nine, when disaster struck with two "blow outs".

The Wednesday Open, sponsored by Aishlings Hair & Beauty was dominated by our guests from visiting clubs. The top three in the ladies represented Miltown, Carlow and Enniscrone. In the gents, our Captain Aidan separated Paul and Eamonn from Portarlinton and Abbeyleix.
